VILLA ITAL-1575 ITALY, ITALY

DESCRIPTION

A Villa in the historical centre of a Tuscan village, for a taste of real Italian life. The village is situated between Rome and Florence, with very good access to the main Italian motorway, the A1. Therefore an ideal location to discover central Italy and its most characteristic cities.

This Unesco protected region, the Val d'Orcia represents the most characteristic Tuscan countryside. Every season offers a changing scenery, with its endless green fields or its golden hills. The villa is located on one of the 'piazza' of the little village of Castelmuzio. guests will go back to 'slow life' at the rhythm of Italian villages.

The house kept its original structure, with a main entrance and corridor, being the central part of the house linking every floor, and on both sides, living areas on the ground floor, with kitchen, living and various relaxing areas; and on the upper floors, the various suites.

The villa is a mix of antiques and modern furnishings from all over the world, aiming to blend the old and new with a great sense of comfort and harmony.

Lovely plunge pool in the charming garden, for a relaxing and refreshing moment.
