VILLA POSI-2105 POSITANO, ITALY

DESCRIPTION

Imposing building ornately decorated

Located in Liparlati, the oldest district of Positano and not far from the church of St James, this luxury rental villa takes you back in time. Built high up on a hill, the ornate villa has spectacular views of the sea and surrounding villas from all its many terraces. The noble private villa was built in 1741 at the height of sea trade in the Mediterranean when rich ship owners displayed their wealth and position in society with paintings, stucco, tiled floors and frescoes, all done by local artists. In this villa, most of the original decorations have been preserved, in particular, 300 meters of terraces with a colonnade. To complement these decorations, all the rooms have been furnished with antiques.

The villa has four floors with the main entrance being on the first floor. It is also possible to access the house from the Mediterranean garden on the ground floor. The first floor also houses the kitchen where a cook can prepare traditional local dishes, and a large living area equipped with a dining room suite, couches, tables and a computer with services such as Wi-Fi, an ADSL line, fax and email.

All eight bedrooms are equipped with a large bathroom and large terrace and have all the comforts of 5-star luxury living. On the second floor there are four big bedrooms with correspondingly large bathrooms full of antique Neapolitan ceramic mosaics from the eighteenth century. A similar four bedrooms are located on the third floor.

To relax guests and choose between the large library full of old and new books on the first floor, or one of the numerous shaded terraces furnished with tables of various sizes or with sun chairs. The pool with its outdoor shower is shaded by an ancient tree and has spectacular views of the beach of Positano.

Both the terraces and the flower-filled garden have the same spectacular views. The garden is full of bougainvillea, lemon and orange trees which are used to make the natural juices and homemade jams served for breakfast. At night the garden paths and trees are lit with lanterns and during the day guests can enjoy a meal outdoors at a table set on the manicured lawn and under shady trees.

The villa is maintained by two efficient staff members and one butler.
